BOURBON'S SEVEN SOLDIERS ON WAITING ORDERS.

Grouped around the entrance to the Sheriff's office in the court house yesterday afternoon, seven young men had been selected at Bourbon county's first contribution at Camp Taylor, awaiting the time for their departure.

The young men were Samuel J. Wiggins, Frank Nelson Higgins, Robert Mitchell Delaney, Wm. C. Perrin, Merritt Jameson Slicer, Robert Lapsley Link, Jr., all of Paris, and Allie Clay Detwiler, of North Middletown. They were provided with light hand baggage, some with suitcases, containing only such articles as would be necessary for the use for a short while, until they reached Camp Taylor, where Uncle Sam's men will take care of them. The men were permitted to go to their homes for the night, and will report this morning, when they will entrain for the camp at Louisville.

On account of a Government regulation the time of departure and arrival of the troop train cannot be given. The men will go to Louisville on a troop train which will carry the first five per cent. of the drafted men from this section. The train will be provided with accommodations for the men, who will be given box lunches and all comforts and attention en route to the camp.

In recognition of the fact that Mr. Clay Detwiler was the first Bourbon county man examined for service who refused to claim exemption on any grounds whatever, he was designated by the local Exemption Board as Captain and placed in charge of the drafted men, who will be under his command until they reach Camp Taylor.

Patriotic citizen of Paris yesterday contributed a fund amounting to $19 for the purchase of cigarettes and tobacco for the Bourbon boys. The young men are very thankful for this evidence of appreciation on the part of Paris people and desire to extend their personal thanks for the contribution, which will go a long way toward providing the "smokes" for lonely hours in camp.

The law requires that the draftees wear a tag designating the county from which they come to the camp. THE BOURBON NEWS force presented Bourbon's seven men with handsome white satin badges bearing the words "Bourbon County," which they will wear instead of the ordinary tag.

BOYS ROBBING GARDENS.

Numerous complaints of gardens being robbed of all their vegetables, grapevines and fruit trees stripped of their fruits, all indicating the operations of juveniles, have been reported to the Paris police.

The operations of the vegetarian youngsters all bore the impress of similarity, and with this as a clue the police went to work. They soon rounded up a gang of young depredateurs, upon whom suspicion had fallen, and after a course of "sprouts" developed evidence connecting them with the work.

On account of their youth no prosecutions have been instituted, but the youngsters were given a forcible reminder that the eyes of the guardians of the law were upon them, and that a repetition of the offenses of which they stood partly convicted, would bring trouble in its wake.

One of the youths who was mixed up in the affair called at a local restaurant a short time ago and asked for a drink of water. While securing the water the clerk turned his head in time to see the boy stealing a quantity of fruit, which he compelled him to restore to its former place, and ejected him from the store.

SCHOOLS OPEN WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE.

The Paris Public Schools, the Parochial Schools, the Paris Home School, Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland's private schools and other educational institutions opened Monday with an increased attendance.

The Paris Public School is crowded, especially in the lower grades. Six hundred and sixty-eight pupils were enrolled Monday with many additions Tuesday.

Mr. C. L. Bower, of Newport, who was recently elected teacher of history and civics, in the Paris High School, telephoned his resignation Monday night from Lexington, where he went after the day's work. No reason for the resignation was assigned. His successor will be decided upon at a future meeting of the City Board of Education.

STILL HAS GOOD EYE.

Squire John N. Shropshire, one of the most popular members of the Bourbon Fiscal Court, made a good record as a trap shot at a shoot given at Corbin, by the Corbin Gun Club, when he broke 186 out of a possible 200 targets, shooting for a silver trophy cup. The winner was Mr. Wm. Warren, of Roanoke, Va., who scored 192 out of 200. Ben Goff, of Winchester, was second, with 189 out of 200.

BIG OIL STRIKE NEAR BOURBON COMPANY'S HOLDINGS.

A big oil strike in territory adjacent to valuable leases owned and being operated by the Bourbon Oil and Development Co., of Paris, was made Tuesday. This strike promises to materially increase the value of the local company's leases, they being located in the same territory.

The famous Ashley lease in Powell county has yielded another well, which, according to reports, surpassed anything that has ever been struck in the Kentucky fields. The well was bought in by White & Huff and is said to be good for 800 barrels, according to conservative estimates, while other estimates bring the production of the new well up to 1,000 barrels.

The managers of the local company are greatly pleased with the encouraging news as stated above, which adds renewed interest to doings in oil in this section, and holds out hope for a similar strike on their property.

RED CROSS KNITTERS NOW ASSURED OF YARN.

The workers who desire to do knitting for the American soldiers in the trenches are now assured of a plentiful supply of yarn, so necessary for the successful prosecution of the work. Supplies can be obtained by calling on Miss Stella Owens, at the corner of Main and Twelfth streets. This material will be freely supplied to the Red Cross Knitting Club, or any other volunteer workers.

The work has been progressing very slowly for some time. The need for the knitting is so urgent and the desire of the local branch to supply the demand is so great that it wishes to make a very earnest plea to the ladies of Paris to give all the time they possibly can spare from their household duties to this great work. The impression that the workers must be expert sewers and knitters is entirely erroneous. They can very easily acquire the art of knitting under capable instructors. There is something for all to do, but the sewing and knitting is the greater part of the work.

The serious thing about the part in this war that is to be played by those who stay at home is that it can't be done to-morrow, as that will be too late. Now, every day is the accepted time. The army will not wait on the Red Cross. When the orders come to go into battle troops will follow their flag whether there are bandages enough to heal their wounds or not.

MISS LOUIE BRUER ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MOTHER.

Miss Louie Bruer, lately of Paris, where she was several times local Truant Officer, and prominently identified with religious and social movements, entertained at the home of President and Mrs. J. L. Clark, in Winchester, Tuesday, in honor of her mother, who on that day, reached the eighty-fourth milestone on the journey of life.

A color scheme of yellow and white was tastefully carried out, and a splendid birthday cake was provided, adorned with eighty-four small wax tapers. A dainty and tempting menu was served. The invited guests for the affair were Mrs. Emma Graves, Mrs. Nannie Dudley, Mrs. J. E. Wood, President J. L. Clark, Mrs. Clark and family, all of Winchester, and Misses Rebecca and Tillie Jaynes, of Paris.

Miss Bruer will be in charge of the girls' dormitory of the Kentucky Wesleyan College, at Winchester, of which Rev. J. L. Clark, formerly pastor of the Paris Methodist church, is president, for the coming session, which opened Wednesday. Pending the completion of the new dormitory structure, Miss Bruer will be in charge of the girls at the home of President and Mrs. Clark.

BOURBON FISCAL COURT.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court met yesterday morning, for the regular monthly meeting, but no business was transacted, owing to the absence of County Judge McMillan, who is with a camping party at Blue Lick Springs. The Court will be called to meet again upon Judge McMillan's return.

Among many important matters to be considered by the Court will be the awards to beneficiaries of the Garth Fund, both old and new.

CYNTHIANA PLAYER SOLD TO CHICAGO WHITE SOX.

Harvey McClellan, son of Hugh McClellan, of Cynthiana, a professional baseball player, has been sold by the Hutchison, Kan., team to the White Sox, Chicago, for $5,500. McClellan played third base with the Lexington Colts from 1914 to 1916, when he signed with St. Joseph, Mo., and later with Hutchison.

PLANS FOR THE ANNUAL D. OF C. CONVENTION.

The call for the annual State Convention of the Kentucky Division Daughters of the Confederacy, has been issued, and the date for the meeting has been set for Wednesday and Thursday, September 19 and 20, in Danville. The sessions will be held in the Presbyterian church in that city.

The Danville Chapter D. of C. is making elaborate preparations for entertainment of the guests, several hundred of whom are expected to attend. On the first meeting of the convention members of the Danville Chapter will be given a reception in honor of the visiting delegations, and on Thursday they will give a lunch for them. On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Club of Danville will arrange an automobile trip to places of interest in and around Danville.

The last night of the convention will be known as "Historical Night," and a program of more than usual attractiveness will be presented. The feature of the evening will be readings by Mrs. M. V. Moore, of Talladega, Ala., better known in the South as "Betsy Hamilton," a writer of Southern dialect stories and a reader of nation-wide reputation. A musical program will be given by Mr. Forest Dabney Carr, Miss Emma Smith and Miss Cosby.

The following ladies will represent Richard Hawes Chapter, of Paris, as delegates: Mrs. Russell Mann, Mrs. Ada Rice, Mrs. King Griffith; alternates, Mrs. R. J. Neely, Mrs. Thos. A. McDonald, Miss Carroll Leer.

DOG BITES MAN'S HAND.

While talking to a tenant on a farm near Paris, Monday afternoon, Mr. Jos. D. Booth, a prominent farmer and commission merchant of near Paris, was attacked by a vicious bull dog, and for a while had a hard fight to keep the brute from tearing his throat.

The dog made several lunges at Mr. Booth's throat, his fangs barely missing him, but by putting up a hard fight by kicking and beating the animal, Mr. Booth managed to evade him. In the effort to ward the dog's attack from his throat Mr. Booth's right hand was torn and lacerated by the dog's teeth. The animal was finally subdued by the tenant's assistance. Mr. Booth was taken to a physician's office, where the wounds on his hand were cauterized and the hand dressed. It is not thought any serious trouble will result from the wounds.

MEN FOR HOSPITAL CORPS WILL BE EXEMPTED.

Although drafted men who have already been examined and accepted for service in the National Army are not eligible for service with Base Hospital Unit No. 49, now being organized by Dr. David Barrow for service in France, those who will be called in the future, and who have enlisted in the hospital corps of the Base Hospital Unit before receiving their calls will be exempted from draft on the certification of their enlistment with the hospital service. This status of drafted men was stated plainly in an order received by Dr. Barrow.

No actual enlistments have been made in the local unit yet, since an officer has not yet been appointed by Washington for that work, and enlistment can only be made through the hands of such an officer. Dr. Barrow has forwarded to the office of the surgeon general, however, the name of a member of his staff with a recommendation that he be appointed, and expects a ratification of his selection within the next day or two.

As soon as this appointment has been made by Washington notices will be mailed immediately to those who have applied in the hospital corps, requesting them to report to him for examination and, if the results of the examination be satisfactory, actual enlistment.

Several of these applicants are from Paris and Bourbon county.

CLASS IN MILITARY TRAINING.

The class in military training, which is being conducted here by Miss Alice Rogers Clay, now has a membership of fifteen, and interest is increasing at each meeting. The class has changed its place for drill from the vacant lot in the rear of the Christian church to the residence of Mrs. Thomas Henry Clay, Sr., on Pleasant street.

Instructions in the preparation and use of surgical dressings are being given in the Red Cross headquarters on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, to a large class by Mrs. May Stoner Clay. The class meets every morning at the place designated above.

MANUFACTURE OF WHISKEY TO CEASE TO-MORROW.

As the result of the operation of one of the salient provisions of the Food Control Bill, recently enacted by Congress, the knell of whiskey production in the United States will be sounded to-morrow at 1 o'clock, when the various distilleries of the country will be shut down, and one of the oldest and most extensive industries in America will cease to exist for the period of the war.

The effect of this war measure will perhaps be more keenly felt in Kentucky, which has long been famous the world over as a whiskey producing State, than in any other in the Union, unless it be Illinois, for some of the largest distilling plants in the country are located in Kentucky.

In the past few years several distilleries have been forced to suspend operations because of the growth of the prohibition movement, but at present there are 180 bonded distilleries in the State, twenty being located in the Seventh district, in which Paris is situated.

A FREAK OF NATURE.

Nature was surely in a freakish mood when she started a stalk of corn to growing in the rear yard of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Davis, on Seventh street, as the finished product shows.

When the stalk began to push its way to maturity it gave no indication of its purpose to produce one of the strangest freaks of nature. As it grew to development, however, there appeared an ear of corn which, like Jack's beanstalk, "grew and grew." When Mr. Davis' attention was closely directed to the growth, he discovered that he had a treasure beyond price. The lone ear of corn, surrounded by the customary green sheath, had developed eight bunnies, of irregular growth and size, ranged in a circle around the parent stem. From three of these grew fully-developed stalks of wheat, bearded and full-grained as those in the fields. But the strangest freak of all was a miniature bunny which grew from the end of one of the stalks of wheat. The whole freak was apparently of one piece the solid structure of the corn stalk bearing evidence of nature's carefulness.

Mr. Davis has the freak growth on exhibition on his desk at the establishment of George W. Davis, where it may be seen. He contemplates presenting it to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

"Sue," a valuable and intelligent dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Thomas, Jr., was instantly killed one day this week by being caught in the propeller of a launch on Stoner creek.

The dog was very fond of swimming and when she saw the launch, in which was one of Mr. Thomas' friends, going up the creek, swam out to it. Approaching too close to the boat the dog was caught in the suction and drawn into the propeller, being disemboweled by the sharp blades.

"Sue" had been taught a number of tricks, one of which was to hold the lines and drive a pony belonging to Mrs. Thomas, which she did almost like a human. She was an intimate friend of the members of the Chipewake Club when that organization camped on the banks of Stoner, and was highly regarded by them as a most intelligent animal.

ORDER SENDING NEGROES TO EVERY CAMP STANDS.

How color lines have been ignored in the assignment of negro troops in the draft section of the National Army is revealed in general orders issued, showing the War Department's intention to apportion the negro troops evenly where possible in all cantonments. The order provides that in every cantonment there shall be one negro infantry regiment where sufficient personnel is available.

Protests have been made against quartering negro troops in certain parts of the South, but no modification has been made. The order is taken as an indication of what the War Department will do in disposing of similar regiments in National Guard camps.

METHODIST CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT LEXINGTON.

The ninety-seventh annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened in the First Methodist church in Lexington, Wednesday morning for a four-days' session.

Little except routine business was transacted at the opening session, which was presided over by Bishop James Atkinson, of Waynesville, N. C. A number of committee appointments were made. The evening session was devoted to Sunday school work within the church. Dr. C. H. Greer, presiding elder of the Danville District, and Dr. C. H. Bulla, general superintendent of Wesley Bible Classes for the States, made talks on this phase of the work. The annual report of the Educational Committee of the church, regarding the educational work now being carried on in the universities, was read by Secretary W. E. Arnold. Dr. O. E. Goddard, of Galveston, Texas, addressed the conference on the subject of "The Mother Church."

Yesterday's session of the conference consisted for the most part of routine work, with an interesting address in the afternoon by Dr. Goddard. Discussion of the work of the Epworth League, the young people's branch of the church work, occupied the most of the night session. This discussion was participated in by Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, of Paris, president of the Frankfort District of the Epworth League.

Among the delegates who are attending the conference are the following from this city and county: Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, C. H. Caswell, Rev. W. O. Saylor, of Paris; Rev. J. J. Dickey, of Hutchison; President C. C. Fisher, of the Millersburg Female College; Rev. J. D. Redd, Millersburg.

BOURBON TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The first day's session of the Bourbon County Teachers' Association opened Monday at the court house with Prof. R. H. Ellett, presiding, assisted by Miss Dalton, of Lexington, as director. Mr. Clarence Harney was elected secretary.

The morning session was opened with devotional exercises, and a very instructive program was rendered. The second day's program was also very interesting, a number of subjects, including history, discipline, playgrounds and story-telling, being discussed. Vocal and instrumental selections added much to the pleasure of the program. During the morning session a recess was taken, when the teachers paid a visit to the Colored Teachers' Institute, which is being conducted by Prof. Cook, of the Little Rock school. The third day of the meeting included discussions of the subjects of illiteracy, teaching of grammar, domestic science, patriotism, drilling, etc.

At the opening session forty-two teachers of the county schools were enrolled. The only teachers absent were Misses Louise Benthall and Margaret Lenihan, who were detained at home by illness of members of their families. Among the out-of-town visitors who have been attending the sessions of the Institute were Prof. F. C. Button, of Frankfort, and Prof. J. C. Daniels, of Richmond, Va.

The Institute will continue its sessions throughout to-day, with two sessions daily, beginning at nine in the morning, and two in the afternoon.

Yesterday an interesting program was presented for discussion, the subjects under consideration being those of vivid interest in school life, such as apply to the conduct of county schools. A musical program was also rendered. The sessions of the Institute will continue through to-day.

WONDER WHAT THE GOV. SAID AT FRANKFORT?

As a rest from the burdens and cares of their official duties, Gov. A. O. Stanley and Executive Game and Fish Agent J. Quincy Ward came to Paris, Wednesday, and went into the hemp-fields with their heavy artillery in pursuit of the gentle and elusive doves. They were guests at the home of Mr. D. Hume, where, according to reports, they had a good time. We don't know what kind of a report the Governor made to the papers in his "home town," but it was reliably reported here that some of our sportsmen, sympathizing with him, presented him with twelve doves. Allowing that the Governor killed three, was able to get inside the legal limit by the kindness of the "boys" here.

Messrs. Henry Clark and Jesse Cumber, who have been conducting the barber shop in the Shinnors building, adjoining Longo's fruit stand, have dissolved partnership and retired from business. One of the firm has gone to Dayton, Ohio, where he will engage in business.

The Laborers For the Harvest.

Every year in July there goes up the annual cry for the laborers who shall harvest the crops. In the grain country the railroad trains filled with harvest hands on their way to work are a sight. All types of humanity can be found there. There are bright faced, eager college boys, anxious to help pay their tuition, blear eyed drunkards out of the city for long enough to acquire the funds for the next spree. There are tramps of the type known on the road as "gay cats." They take seasonal jobs for a few weeks to gain a few dollars, intending to spend the rest of the year in vagrancy. It is a motley crew. The farmer has to take anything he can get, and few questions can be asked. In good times it may seem at the start almost impossible to get the extra help. Yet somehow or other it is secured, and the crops are successfully garnered. The number of workers that can be drawn into the agricultural districts for a short time job is a revelation of the number of seasonal workers. It shows that a great many families must be depending on men whose means of livelihood is very intermittent and precarious. According to social students, many of these seasonal workers, who are depended on as harvest hands in summer, are men of low mentality, who could not hold regular jobs. No doubt many of them are the victims of parental vice, crime or ignorance. They never acquire education enough to make themselves of anything more than emergency value. Socialists will say that this indicates that there is a great quantity of surplus labor, which owing to the abuses of capitalism can find no regular employment. But in most cases there is probably a lack of fitness for regular tasks. Usually the man who is capable of regular work gets it, subject, of course, to the vicissitudes of occasional business depression. But it is an indication of social disease when so large a supply of unemployed laborers can be so readily secured. It is hopeless to try to work the gold brick game on the farmers now, but the city people still think that vegetables like the seed catalog cuts can be made to grow in their back yards.

Women As Gardeners and Farmers.

A convention has just been held at Boston of the Women's National Agricultural and Horticultural Association. The showing of successes made at this meeting may interest some women who are disheartened by low salaries and preference given men for identical work. Going into business for themselves is always the recourse open to people who are not paid the actual value of their product. Women's cabbages and beans will never be discriminated against on account of the sex of the producer.

The seed catalogs make the raising of fancy corn and beans seem a very easy task. According to the magazine articles with the pretty half tone cuts, it is all poetic work. In actual life it is of course laborious and dirty, though it is clean dirt. Few people are brainy enough to make a living from the soil by standing around and telling others what to do. At least not without long experience. At the start they must be pace-makers for stupid and indolent men, which means using the spade and hoe for themselves.

It is a general rule that physical capacity comes with the use of the muscles. A woman at work in the fields, according to old ideas, has seemed to be performing a coars and hard task belonging rather to men. Yet woman can dance as long as men, and hosts of them play their five sets of tennis and eighteen holes of golf.

Market gardening seems usually more practical for women than farming, as less capital is required for a start. They can begin with some specialty on an acre, which will do to try out their first experiments and failures. The first year they should more than pay expenses, which is rarely the case in a new occupation.

The education may cost them nothing. A short course in some agricultural college would be the best. But if that can't be had, the government and State experiment stations and schools and bulletins offer no end of expert advice free. It is a field in which there is an unlimited demand for the product at high prices.

It is surprising with what relish the June bridegroom turns from his mother's swell cooking, to the position of the dog on whom the bride's kitchen experiments are being tried.

"CARRY YOUR BUNDLES HOME."

"Carry all small bundles home," is the new motto of the Woman's Council of the Board of National Defense. Members of the Council hope in this way to save the merchant the cost of delivery and thus reduce the prices on merchandise to the general public. Shoppers who carry small bundles home are entitled to ask the merchant for the discount saved him in this way.

Paris women have already shown their willingness and readiness to do their bit toward winning the war by carrying their knitting bags with them wherever they go. But the carrying of the shopping bag and the market basket will result in saving to the customer and incidentally to the government, and thus will be a great help toward strengthening the second line of defense. What is now spent unnecessarily for delivery can be saved for the Red Cross and the Liberty Bond issue.

Let the knitting bag, the market basket, and the shopping bag form a "triple alliance" whenever the housekeeper leaves her home, and the length of the war will be shortened in direct proportion to the eagerness of the women to make small sacrifices for the Government of the United States.

WANTS TO BE INTERPRETER.

The Washington, D. C., correspondence of the Courier-Journal has the following regarding Mr. Felix Renick, of Winchester, a nephew of Mr. B. M. Renick and Mrs. Duncan Bell, of Paris:

"Felix Renick, of Winchester, arrived in Washington, Saturday. He is not quite twenty-one yet, but is anxious to go to France to do his bit. He is an A. B. graduate of Centre College and an M. A. from Princeton University and desires to get into the Intelligence Department of the war game, a place for which he is admirably fitted, as he speaks French fluently."

HOPE BASED ON FIRM FOUNDATION.

Before the absolute knowledge that consumption can be prevented, arrested and cured it was the subject of universal remark that it was remarkable how hopeful the victims of the disease could be in the fact of certain death from an incurable malady.

The hope of getting well, which sprang eternal in their breast, has at last been given foundation by the study and experience with the disease by doctors who have devoted their lives to it and the infected can now look forward to almost certain relief if they observe the simple rules laid down by them. They are deep breathing of fresh air, rest, nourishing food, proper clothing, cheerfulness, clean habits and clean surroundings and a good doctor.

The best results can be obtained in sanatoria, but when they are not available, the State Tuberculosis Commission has had prepared pamphlets giving the proper method of home treatment, which Dr. W. L. Helzer, Secretary, Frankfort, will be glad to mail free to any one interested.

WILSON'S WELCOME TO NATIONAL ARMY.

Soldiers of the National Army were welcomed into the nation's service Wednesday by President Wilson with a message of affectionate confidence and a prayer to God to keep and guide them. Everything these young men do, the President told them, will be watched with the deepest solicitude by the whole country, and the eyes of the world will be upon them, because they are "in some special sense the soldiers of freedom."

The first soldiers for the army raised under the draft law started from their homes for the training cantonments Wednesday. The President asks them as brothers and comrades in the great war to keep straight and fit by a standard so high that living up to it will add a new laurel to the crown of America. The message follows:

"The White House, Washington.—To the Soldiers of the National Army: You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with deepest solicitude, not only by those who are near and dear to you, but by the whole nation besides. For this great war draws us all together, makes us all comrades and brothers, as all true Americans felt themselves to be when we first made good our national independence. The eyes of all the world will be upon you, because you are in some special sense the soldiers of freedom."

"Let it be your pride, therefore, to show all men everywhere not only what good soldiers you are, but also what good men you are, keeping yourselves fit and straight in everything and pure and clean through and through. Let us set for ourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it, and then let us live up to it and add a new laurel to the crown of America. My affectionate confidence goes with you in every battle and every test. God keep and guide you."

"WOODROW WILSON."

A LOWER COST OF HEATING.

(Thomas F. Logan in Leslie's.)
An effort has been made by the Bureau of Mines of the Department of the Interior to solve one of the high cost of living problems. Experts of the bureau made tests in a ten-room house in New Haven, Conn., which was comfortably heated at a cost of $40 for the fall and winter, a saving over the other houses of the same size in the same locality of from $50 to $100. The experts point out that the value a householder gets from the fuel he burns depends largely on the character of the heating apparatus, the conditions under which it is installed, and the manner in which the fire is handled. They further point out that many furnaces and boilers are operated in a haphazard way. Drafts are opened or coal is put on when the house becomes cool, then the fire is allowed to burn rapidly until either the rooms are too warm or the fuel bed is burned down too far to kindle properly a new charge of coal. Such firing, it is stated, always is wasteful. The heater should receive regular attention, and if the demands for heat are intelligently anticipated, as they ordinarily can be, the house can be warmed with minimum trouble and fuel. Any one interested in the report may obtain a copy of it by sending to the "United States Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C."

SWALLOWED THE DICTIONARY.

(Georgetown News.)
The author of this touching epistle while experimenting with the English language had the misfortune to swallow the dictionary, and in a fit of desperation riddled himself of these many big words in an effort to secure a position in the local high school. After recovering from the gaseous effect of the first reading Prof. Waller calmly, but firmly, refused the author's services and looked elsewhere for his teacher. Sherman defined war, but who can define this:

"Mr. J. C. Waller, Georgetown, Ky.: Dear Mr. Waller—Begging your pardon for the procrastination of this letter, allow me to express my fervent willingness to secure, if possible, the situation as a supervisor of Palmer penmanship and music in your schools."

"My preliminary culture has been nurtured and supplemented by assiduous efforts on my part to become an adept in those branches which my inherent propensity behooves me to teach."

"I taught penmanship and music conjointly; the faculty were much pleased with my work, as I endeavored to do my best, integrity and sincerity being my weapons. My experience, allow me to say, has been augmented by esoteric teaching, which gave me splendid opportunity to temper my previous instruction. The subjects enumerated in the recommendation blank appealed to me from the standpoint of having taught them before, and I earnestly hope to receive word of your approbation."

Maudie, the beautiful high school girl, finds her greatest sorrow in the fact that she has such coarse parents.

It is easier to make enemies than friends, but it is easier to get rid of friends than it is to get rid of enemies.

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Change Safely Passed by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never get tired of praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because during Change of Life I was in bed two years and had two operations, but all the doctors and operations did me no good, and I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

—Mrs. VIOLA FINICAL, Wagoner, Okla.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through the crisis.

CLOSE CALL FOR THE HORSE

(Richmond Register.)

While driving a blind horse to a wagon about a half mile above the mouth of Paint Lick Creek, on the Kentucky River, Larkin Pain and Geo. Gill, of Jessamine, were dumped out, and the horse and wagon thrown into the river, when Pain pulled on the wrong line to guide the slightest animal. The outfit went over a fifty-foot embankment and into about twenty feet of water. The men jumped out when the horse went over and saved themselves. Joe Burton, a Madison farmer, living about a quarter of a mile across the river, heard the alarm and came immediately to their rescue with Alex Walker. The horse broke loose from the submerged wagon and was blindly swimming around until Mr. Walker, rowing his boat, came near, while Mr. Burton caught hold of the horse and towed him quietly down the river 150 yards to a bar, where they landed safely. The wagon was salvaged later, also.

MAYSVILLE TO BUILD SEWERS.

The Maysville City Council Tuesday night ordered that a special election be called to vote on a $100,000 bond issue for the construction of a complete sanitary sewage system in the city.

FOR YOUR SCRAPBOOK.

IF YOU WERE BUSY.

If you were busy being kind, Before you knew it you would find You'd soon forget to think 'twas true That someone was unkind to you.

If you were busy being glad And cheering people who were sad, Although your heart might ache a bit You'd soon forget to notice it.

If you were busy being good And doing just the best you could, You'd not have time to blame some man Who's doing just the best he can.

If you were busy being true To what you know you ought to do, You'd be so busy you'd forget The blunders of the folks you've met.

If you were busy being right, You'd find yourself too busy quite To criticize your neighbor long Because he's busy being wrong.

SHOULD BE STOPPED

The honk-honking of automobile horns, the hideous noise of opened mufflers and the score of other noises hardly seem a part of a social dance, yet it seems to be the aftermath in Paris.

Paris people complained of the unseemly noises and disorderly conduct of a large party of youngsters returning from the dance Tuesday morning. To be kept awake all night is pretty tough on the man who has to go to work. These young people should have a little more consideration—but will they?

Complaints are frequent regarding the noise of automobile and motorcycle horns and open mufflers in the vicinity of churches while services are being held. But, as a prominent merchant remarked, "The day may come when some effort will be made by the officials to stop it—perhaps!"

A SMALL DOVE CROP.

According to reports from many hunters who have been in the fields in this county, the supply of doves has turned out to be rather disappointing. Even in the hemp fields the hunters had several long hours of waiting before the birds flew in. The scarcity of birds is attributed to the way in which hundreds were mercilessly slaughtered last season. There will have to be more protection given these birds or they will become so scarce as to render hunting them a matter of doubt, or they may be entirely cleaned out.

THE STATE FAIR.

The big State Fair begins at Louisville next Monday and continues through the week. The railroads are making special round trip rates. The fair promises to be very attractive this year.

Of recent years the State Fair has been attracting a large attendance from Bourbon county. The discontinuance of the county fairs in this and other nearby counties left a vacuum that simply had to be filled, so our people go to the State Fair, where they are sure of good programs in all the events. Lexington had a fair this year, but it was so poorly advertised that it was poorly attended.

TRAINING THE TROOPS.

The program to be followed at the various army camps upon the arrival of the men that will make up the new National Army was announced a few days ago by the War Department. The program for the first four weeks only after the opening of the camps. The local Exemption Boards will be notified to assemble the required quota—5 per cent from each district—at the county seat on September 5. Each man will be furnished with transportation and meal tickets and will be entrained by the local board. The executive officer of the local board will place in charge of each party one or more men of military experience.

The first duty of the recruit when he arrives at the cantonment will be to take a bath. He will then be given a physical examination and vaccinated for typhoid, para typhoid and smallpox. Recommendations will then be made to the company commander for special forms of exercise to remedy any slight physical defects. The first two weeks of training will be occupied almost entirely with these special exercises, light exercises in setting up drills and schooling of the soldier.

During the second two weeks regular training will begin, but the work will be increased gradually and the division surgeon and his assistants will keep a watchful eye on the general physical condition of the men. Thorough instruction in personal hygiene, sanitation and first aid will be given during their first two weeks. On his arrival at the cantonment each man will be assigned to a section of the camp reserved for recruits from his own local section of the divisional area for which the cantonment is established. This will have been previously arranged by the officers in charge, who will have maps of the States comprising their cantonment division with the quotas from each district and can therefore so allot dormitories as to bring together men from the same section.

RACING NOTES CONCERNING PARIS TURF MEN.

The Lexington Herald's sporting pages contain the following interesting references to Paris turfmen, who are in the limelight in turf circles: "French Brooks, formerly trainer for Clay Bros., and Woodford Clay, of Paris, has arrived from Louisville with the Middleton & Jones string, numbering seven head and including Guy Fortune and Lady Always."

"After the two-year-old Dickery Dare, son of Transvaal and Evelyn Kinsey, beat Lazy Ben a sixteenth of a mile, going three-eighths in :37 eased up, J. Hal Woodford bought him from W. R. Hukill, of Paris, and 'Budge' now is in the market for another youngster."

COUNTY ELECTION COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

The Board of Election Commissioners for Bourbon county was appointed at the recent session of the State Election Commissioners at Frankfort. The Board will be composed of Mr. W. G. Talbott, Democrat, and Judge H. Clay Howard, Republican. Sheriff-to-be Wm. G. McClintock will by virtue of his office, be the third member, and will rank as chairman of the Board.

LABOR DAY.

Monday being Labor Day, a legal holiday, the postoffice was closed. There was no general observance of the day in Paris, there being no labor unions here to take part in such celebrations. On account of court day the banks were opened for business as usual.

Quite a number took advantage of the day being a holiday and went to Lexington, where the day was celebrated by the labor unions with a program at Blue Grass Park. Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill delivered a stirring patriotic speech to a large crowd at the Park.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Woman's Bible Class was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Sol. Current, on Main street. Almost the entire membership was present, and 52 interesting program was observed.

—As the result of a membership contest between the "Reds" and "Blues" of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society, which was inaugurated early in the summer, the "Blues" came out as victors. One of the provisions of the contest as in similar ones, was that the losers should entertain the winners at the home of one of their members. This will be carried out at 7:30 o'clock this (Friday) evening, when the "Blues" will be guests of the "Reds" at the home of Mrs. Duncan Bell on High street. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the Society to be present.

WANTS COPY OF HOUSE NUMBERING ORDINANCE.

Impressed by the business-like methods used in the recent campaign for house numbering in Paris, Mr. Samuel King, postmaster of Winchester, has written Postmaster J. Mr. Payne replied by forwarding copies of the ordinance and cards used here, together with some useful information regarding the system used here. While the Paris system is not all it should be yet it is far better than the old one. There is room for improvement in several ways.

RECENT LAND DEALS

As administrator of the estate of the late Mr. Lemuel Offutt, for many years a well-known resident of Paris, the Farmers Bank & Trust Co., of Georgetown, sold the 138-acre farm belonging to the estate, located near Newtown, in Scott county, to Miss Katie Offutt, his daughter, for $150 per acre. This is a most excellent farm, and the price realized is said to be a very good one.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClintock, formerly of Hutchison, who have been residing in Lexington for a number of years, have sold their fine farm of fifty-four acres, located in Fayette county, on the Paris and Lexington pike, to Mr. Hal Price Headley, at a price not given out for publication. It is reported that Mr. Headley acted as agent for a wealthy Easterner. Mr. and Mrs. McClintock will move back to Lexington to reside when possession is given the new owner in January next.

The farm is one of the most attractive places around Lexington. It is a fine body of Bluegrass land, and is in a high state of cultivation. It has a handsome brick residence, servant's quarters, stables, garage, and all necessary improvements, and is conveniently located on the Paris and Lexington interurban line.

Mr. Sam Williams, of Bourbon county, recently sold to Mr. A. B. Harney, of Harrison county, the Matt Lair farm, located on the Townsend and Jacktown pike, in this county, at $145 per acre. The place contains about 161 acres of land, and was bought about a year ago by Mr. Williams from Mr. Matt Lair, of Paris, for $125 per acre. Mr. Harney will be given possession of the place on March 1, 1918. The tract adjoins the lands of Mr. Charles Kuster. Mr. Harney recently sold his farm on the Ruddles Mills pike, in Harrison county.

Ina MacLaren wrote that Gaelic is the best of all languages for terms of endearment, that it has fifty ways of saying "darling." The old tongue of the Isle of Man, a picturesque island almost equally near to Ireland, Scotland and England, is said to be even better furnished with terms for the use of lovers, that it has—or had—ninety-seven ways of saying "my dear."

A DUCK STORY.

This is about time for the annual crop of duck stories. This one is contributed by the Cherryville (Kas.) Republican:

"Jim Jacobs had quite an exciting experience while hunting ducks a few days ago. He had made repeated attempts to get in range of a big flock that had settled on his pond, but each time the ducks would fly before he got in shooting distance. As soon as he would leave the ducks would return. Finally Jim threw his old muzzle loader away and gathered about a dozen big pumpkins and set them afloat on his pond. After the ducks got used to the pumpkins Jim hollowed one out, with eyes like a jack-o-lantern, and slipped it over his head. Then he walked out in the pond up to his neck, and when the flock was all bunched up he got out among the ducks and caught them by the feet.

"The plan worked all right, but Jim was too greedy and kept catching them until he suddenly felt himself rising out of the water, and was terrified when he found that he was being rapidly carried away by the frightened mallards. He didn't dare let go for fear of falling, and every second he was being raised higher above the earth. Finally a bright idea occurred to him, and he began to release the ducks, one by one, until he got too heavy and they gradually settled down. He still had enough ducks that when he dressed them there was meat to last him and his family all winter."

BERLAIN'S TABLETS.

"I have been selling Chamberlain's Tablets for about two years and heard such good reports from my customers that I concluded to give them a trial myself, and can say that I do not believe there is another preparation of the kind equal to them," writes G. A. McBride, Headford, Ont. If you are troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They will do you good.

MONTGOMERY AGRICULTURAL FAIR DECLARED OFF.

The agricultural show open to Bourbon, Clark, Menifee, Bath, Powell and Montgomery counties, which was to be held in Mt. Sterling the last week in October, has been called off. Prizes amounting to $1,100 were offered for exhibits of corn, tobacco and other products, but the farmers took little interest in the movement, only seven entries being received.

THE AUTUMN COATS MAKE THEIR DEBUT

Fashion Decides For Straight Lines and Hip Drapery.

PERSONALITY PLUS PATRIOTISM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6, 1917.

Though the weather man continues his maddening report of "fair and warmer," we fear him not at all, for we have far weightier things on our minds than the mere rise in temperature. The time to seriously plan the Autumn wardrobe has come, and nothing can interfere with that delightful task. Indeed, it must be more carefully planned this year than ever. There is no better formula for the woman of fashion than "Personality Plus Patriotism."

Naturally, the coat plays a very important part in the scheme of things this time of the year. Cool weather demands a coat, and fashion decides which coat. The smart wrap makes a deep impression on the casual observer, for, as every one knows, appearances count for a great deal in this world. There are top coats and suit coats and evening coats; and, oh, the number of fascinating models there are to choose from!

The top coat has been so very popular for some time that we have come to feel that no wardrobe is complete without at least one. On Fifth Avenue one feels almost nonplussed by their great variety. There are coats that cling to the figure, proclaiming in every line their allegiance to the straight silhouette. The draped coats, rivals of straight-line effects, have soft puffings and folds cunningly arranged to give the required fullness across the hips. There are coats without a bit of trimming, there are coats with braid, and coats with fur, and coats with buttons. The Chinese influence, so strongly predicted by Paris, has not as yet gained the ascendancy, though I saw a stunning wrap the other day, a combination of beige and black, hanging straight from the shoulders, with the wide kimono sleeves and narrow belt. There was a waistcoat of many colors, in embroidery and beads; indeed, the waistcoats are quite a feature of this mode.

The Practical Coat

The coat for every-day wear must of necessity be extremely simple, depending on the charm of line, color, and material instead of on a great deal of trimming. Fur is still used to a great extent, though not so universally as last year, when one felt completely out of style if there was not a mile or two of fur on coat and dress. Collars, cuffs and pockets may be banded with fur, or, if satin is used, a very pretty trimming is wide Hercules braid. Stitching, too, will be used a great deal; two or three rows on the collar and cuffs make an exceedingly pretty finish. Many of the coats fasten up to the neck with broad collars of the same material or of velvet, fur or satin.

A particularly good example of the smartness of simplicity is illustrated here. It has the Empire waistline so becoming to the young girl or the small woman with the girlish figure. It belongs to the drapery family, though the straight silhouette is also followed. The smart pockets are really useful as well as being ornamental. The collar, fastened so snugly here, is equally attractive if left hanging loosely. Sometimes a swag shoulder cape is worn with a coat of this type.

Colorings this Autumn will be a trifle subdued. It is rather a relief, I think, to see the soft grays, tans and greens after the kaleidoscopic shapes of the summer. Chocolate, dark green and blue are predominant colors, with here and there the alluring charm of the russets, tawny oranges and brilliant coppers. Never has there been a season when the color a woman really loves and admires can so easily be used. Combinations of colors, too are seen everywhere. I have in mind one charming creation of dull rose combined with taupe.

An Evening Wrap of Rose-Colored

The suit coats vary in length, from the very short Eton jacket to the coats in knee length or longer. As a well-known designer said to me the other day, "But, Madame, it is a matter of temperament, alone. End the coat where you please."

A Wonderful Evening Wrap.

"The stuff dreams are made of," seems to have been used this year for the evening wraps. They are so soft and lustrous, so marvelous, and yet so simple, they seem in perfect harmony with the times. Of course velvets, plushes, broadcloths and satins are favorite materials, but they are so different in colors and combinations of colors that they do not seem the same old materials. The one illustrated here is very simple, and absolutely irresistible. The collar is charmingly draped, the yoke effect gives so becoming a line, that one is tempted to say, "This is my ideal."

THE MOVIES.

I now am a regular movie fan; I eat it, dream it, blab it. I'm not the same old sort of a man. Since I have formed the habit. I babble about the movie reel, And gossip of the film; When folks don't share my views, I feel

That I should up and kill 'em. We swallow supper ever 'night. And hurry, hurry, hurry, night. To get to the "first show" all right. It's our one chief worry. We're filled up full of Bushman dope, And Babbit has us dizzy; We have no time to grouch or mope, We are too doggone busy.

FREQUENTLY WORDS PAIN MORE THAN BLOWS.

(New York Sun.)

"A man may inflict extreme cruelty, not by blows upon his wife, but by his actions, which may strike deeper than the blow. Cruelties can consist not alone of blows, but by the lash of the tongue which can inflict a greater sting than the blow from any strong arm."

This statement was made recently by Justice Joseph Morschauser in the Supreme Court at White Plains during the trial of the suit for a separation brought by Mrs. Anna F. Mead against her husband, Lawrence J. Mead, on the ground that he not alone abandoned her, but treated her cruelly.

Mrs. Mead told how her husband had taunted her about the girls he had met and said that he believed every man should have a harem. This testimony is what brought out the meaning of cruelty as defined by Justice Morschauser. Mr. and Mrs. Mead have been married fourteen years and have two children.

Babies' Health Contest Draws Mothers to the State Fair

COMMISSIONER COHEN AND PRIZE CUP AND BABY.

You would guard your baby with your life, but how much better to guard it with your brain. One million babies are now entering on their first summer, and one out of every fifteen of these will die, according to medical statistics, from heat, poor nourishment and the wrong clothes. Do you want your baby to be one of the fifteen? If not, learn how to keep your little one from heat suffering, from the wrong food and from clothes that sap its little strength.

Through the examinations, mental and physical, the scoring of points both good and bad, the scientific object lessons and reading matter provided by the Babies' Health Contest at the Kentucky State Fair, which will be held this year the week of Sept. 10, thousands of mothers are enabled to judge just what dangers are threatening their babies, just what ills to remedy and just how to keep them in prime condition.

If you had a hog, a horse or cow you would learn and know something of its care, because it is valuable. Isn't your baby worth more than horse or cow or pig? Is the query of those interested in the promotion of scientific baby care. They argue that, no matter how lovely, how dimpled, how pink and white and sweet it is, there may be disease or deformity lurking under this beauty, and this is an evil of which you should be forewarned.

Up to date mothers throughout Kentucky are not only entering this contest to find out about their babies, but are coming back year by year to mark the progress this knowledge has given them and the improvement it has made in their children.

The contest this year, which is under the supervision of Mrs. John L. Woodbury, will be marked by a number of innovations, among which will be an elaborate display of knitted goods for babies and the giving away of patterns for these articles to the mothers desiring them.

Another attractive feature will be the spectacular parade which will final the baby contest. This parade will be arranged as a beautiful spectacle in the Hippodrome pavilion and will show every little tot entered in the contest to the greatest advantage.

Entrance to the Babies' Health Contest is free and is open to babies between twelve and thirty-six months throughout the state of Kentucky.

For catalogue or information address Fount T. Kremer, Secretary Kentucky State Fair, Suit 604 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky.

DROPPING BOMBS.

The Germans have apparently taken the lead in the scientific phases of bomb-dropping from aeroplanes. According to reports from abroad, a recently captured German plane included an elaborate instrument for aiming the bomb in such a way that it would strike any given object on the ground below. The essential features of the device were a telescope so adjusted that it swung always perpendicular to the ground, and a prismatic reflector which brought the country ahead of the line of flight into the field of vision. By the use of these two instruments, and by allowing for a altitude as determined by a barometer, the weight of the bomb, which fixed its speed of dent's note from any of the Allies.) plane, which could be determined from the speed of the engine and the resistance of the wind, the aviator could release his bomb in such a way as to strike close to any given objective.

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

MANY TOBACCO BUYERS IN THE FIELD.

A large number of tobacco buyers have been visitors among the tobacco men of Bourbon county recently, inspecting the crops and figuring with the growers.

It is reported that few, if any crops have been sold in this manner, however, but the prices offered have been good. All indications are that tobacco men will demand a good price this season, and it is expected that the markets will be opened on as good or better prices than it opened with last season.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Is The Test of Time—Many Paris People Have Made This Test.

Years ago this Paris citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Paris reader demand more convincing proof? It's Paris testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. G. W. Newman, E. Tenth St., Paris, says: "I had backaches and headaches and at times I was nervous. My kidneys were weak and inactive. Doan's Kidney Pills made me well."

Mrs. Newman gave the above account of her experience with Doan's Kidney Pills on January 17, 1912, and on November 9, 1916, she said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills at times, when I find it necessary. I have always received the same good results, although I do not have so much trouble now as I used to."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Newman has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

MARRIED.

When a girl marries and enters into a strange environment she is confronted with a trying task. The experience of Marjorie Wilde is so comprehensively described by Theodore Dreiser in "Married" in September Cosmopolitan that every reader will appreciate it with sympathetic understanding.

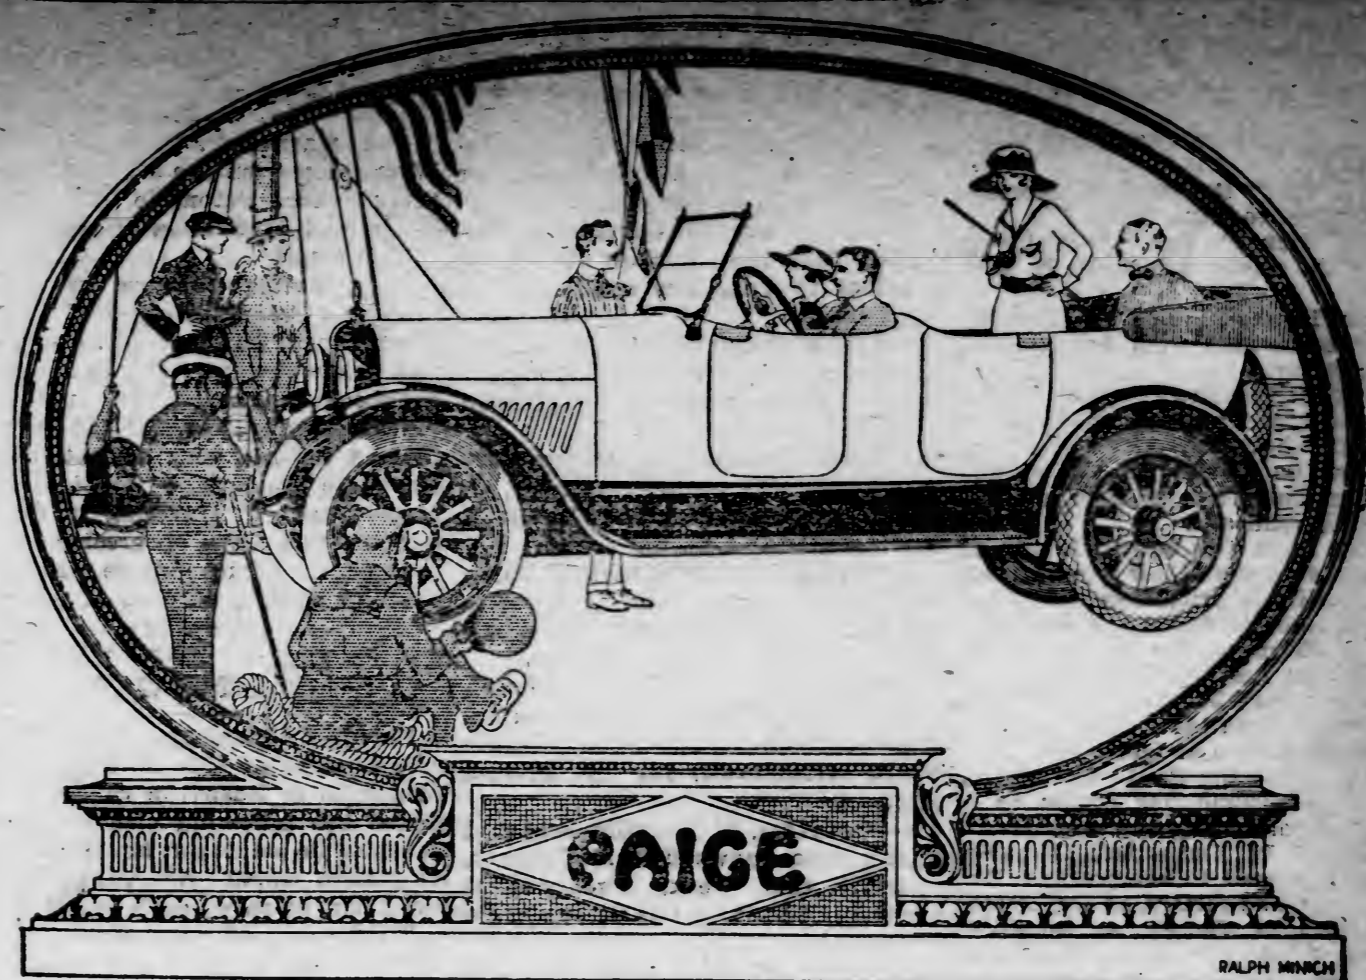

Theodore Dreiser is the author of "The Genius," one of the best selling novels in the past ten years—a novel that created world-wide comment for its daring discussion of the artistic temperament.

This is Mr. Dreiser's first appearance in Cosmopolitan, and he has given it his best work.

The story is profusely illustrated by Howard Chandler Christy.

George Whitt, the sweet potato king of Crittenden county, was here last week collecting barrels and other packages to ship his crop in when it is dug.

He has five acres, usually raises 1,000 barrels or about 200 bushels to the acre. Mr. Whitt says the old theory of poor ground for sweet potatoes is not correct. He thinks the better the ground the better the potatoes and the bigger the yield. Crittenden Record-Herald.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Paige cars have long since demonstrated their independence of all "price fields."

American men and women now buy a Paige—not because of the price tag which is attached to it—but because of its well established reputation as a fine mechanical product.

On this basis, the Paige will always represent a "preferred investment" among motor cars. Its actual cost in dollars and cents will always be an important, but an altogether secondary consideration.

MAN'S DUTY IS TO KEEP FIT.

The greatest problem you will have to solve will be that of making your body do the work required. Some men have to leave the training camps because they are not in the proper physical condition to go on with the work, says the Plattsburg Manual.

If you have not a pair of sensible marching shoes (tan hightops, no hooks on them) get a pair. These shoes should be considerably larger than a pair of office shoes.

Walk to and from your business. Take every opportunity to get out in the country where the air is pure. Fill your lungs full. Get into the habit of taking deep breaths now and then. Don't make this a task, but surround it with pleasantries. Get some delightful companion to walk with you. Walk vigorously. Let down on your smoking. Better to leave it alone for a while. You will enjoy the air. Deep breathing seems to be more natural.

Make it a work for your country. View it in that light. If you are not going to be called upon to undergo cruel hardships and physical strain of some campaigns, your son will be and you can be of great help to him by being fit yourself.

RAILROADS WILL BE BUSY TRANSPORTING TROOPS

Reports from all sources indicate an augmented car supply. The credit for this is, not altogether due the railroads—the shippers are doing their part in handling equipment promptly and in loading it to full capacity. With the people behind them the railroads are able to show results never before obtained.

The railroads must within the next 30 days move 687,000 men of the regular army and 350,000 men of the National Guard to their various training camps. Some idea of this task may be had when it is understood that to move merely one field army of 80,000 men, 6,229 cars made up into 366 trains with 366 locomotives and train crews, are required. While these troops are being moved the transportation of commercial freight, war supplies and passengers must be performed.

At Louisville cantonment alone the railroads have delivered, from June 26th to August 23rd, 1,477 cars of lumber and 512 cars miscellaneous freight, a total of 1,989. This 2,475 acres of farm lands have within something over two months been transformed into a city of comfortable buildings, sewerage, electric lights, telephone exchanges and splendid roads that will shortly house 41,500 soldiers.

Old Jupiter Pluvius takes fiendish delight in ruining poorly protected buildings. At every little crack or bare spot in the paint, the rain soaks in and spreads rot through the wood.

To last, your buildings must be as waterproof as a staunch boat. They will be, if well coated with paint made of Dutch Boy White-Lead thinned with pure linseed oil. Such paint gives a smooth, weatherproof surface that will not crack or scale. It gives beauty, also.

to increase the movement of coal. In June the railroads were able to handle 26 per cent. more than in June last year. This was done with an increase of only 3 per cent. in cars and less than one-half of one per cent. in locomotives.

KENTUCKY CANNERS IN NATIONAL SHOW CONTEST.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6.—The Kentucky State Fair, which will be held at Louisville the week of September 9 to 15, has entered the race for one of the prize rewards of the National Emergency Food Garden Commission for the best exhibit of canned vegetables grown in war gardens.

The application for the prize awards, which consists of $5 and a National Certificate of Merit, was recorded by Charles Lathrop Pack, President of the Commission, with hundreds of other applications being received from all sections of the country. The Commission will award one thousand of these prizes.

Much attention is to be given to the canning exhibit at the Kentucky Fair. The National League for Women has secured a large space at the fair for the purpose of demonstrating its activities, principally canned foodstuffs.

Miss Helen Fitz Randolph, in a letter to the Commission writes: "We will have exhibits from Lexington, Frankfort, Bowling Green, Elizabethtown and Owensboro, showing fruit and vegetables, preserved, canned, jammed, jellied, marmaladed and otherwise perpetuated for a waiting world, according to instruction primers and other helpful literature supplied by the National Emergency Food Garden Commission."

The National League for Women's Service, which is co-operating with the Commission in all parts of the country, is doing great work in encouraging intensive canning of foodstuffs. The Service has adopted as its slogan—"Every time you can, can you help to can the Kaiser."

"CAMOUFLAGE" STEAMSHIP TO ESCAPE "SUB" DETECTION.

To disguise steamships or give them low visibility an interesting experiment in marine painting is being made off the Bay Ridge district in Brooklyn. There a British steamship is being done over with alternating stripes of black and gray, each about four feet wide. Passengers aboard ferryboats have been watching the transformation and noting the difference in the distance at which they can descry the vessel in its new camouflage. The smoke-stack is painted in squares and the hull in stripes.

The matrimonial slacker probably prefers to encounter the ills he knows than fly to those he knows not of.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued Wednesday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, to Mr. Willard Riggs and Miss Lena Hughes, both of this county.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton to Mr. —, but just below the entry in the marriage bondbook appears the notation, "Please Don't Publish." It may be that in the not very distant future, when the contracting parties have become used to traveling in double harness, and have overcome their shyness, the names may be made public. No guesses allowed at present!

KEEP STOCK OFF RAILROAD RIGHT-OF-WAY.

Mr. J. A. Morrison, of Paris, Superintendent of this Division of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, has issued the following circular letter, in which he points out how thousands of dollars worth of valuable live stock can be saved each year:

To Owners of Live Stock, Town Officers, Newspaper Editors and Employees of This Company:

Do you know that thousands of horses, mules, cattle, hogs and sheep are killed annually by railway trains in this country, and that this economic waste approximates many millions of dollars can be reduced?

The thousands of horses and mules that are killed every year would fill the artillery requirements of many regiments, and the thousands of cattle, hogs and sheep that are killed every year would provide meat for thousands of soldiers.

Anyone who aids in preventing their animals in fenced enclosures and not permitting their stock to roam at large on railroad right-of-way; town officers passing and enforcing ordinances prohibiting the practice of permitting stock to roam at large; roadmasters and section men making a personal appeal to the owners of stock to keep their animals in fenced enclosures; engineers taking every precaution within their power to avoid striking stock and never failing to report stock seen on right-of-way; section men driving stock off right-of-way, keeping farm gates closed, and fences and cattle guards in good repair; giving preference to locations where liabilities of stock getting on right-of-way is greatest; newspaper editors presenting this important matter to the public through the press; everyone making a persistent, personal effort to bring about desired results.

The co-operation of all concerned will be thoroughly appreciated.

J. A. MORRISON, Supt.

MORGAN'S MEN IN REUNION.

At the fifteenth annual reunion of the Morgan's Men Association, which began at Olympian Springs, Wednesday, forty-nine old soldiers, bareheaded, stood at attention as the band played "Star Spangled Banner," and pledged their allegiance to the American government, the one which they fought so valiantly many years ago. The morning session was devoted mainly to perfecting the organization, to the singing of old army songs and the later day patriotic ones, and to getting themselves together.

At the election of officers for the coming term, held at the afternoon session, Dr. John A. Lewis, of Georgetown, was elected president for life by a rising vote; Capt. Steve G. Sharp, of Covington, first vice-president; W. H. Robb, of Helena, second vice-president, and P. H. Lee, chaplain. Captain W. J. Stone, of Frankfort, presented an invitation from the city of Louisville inviting the Association to meet in that city next year.

FIRST MAP OF ARMY CAMPS.

A timely advertisement is being distributed by the Southern Railway System in the form of a booklet showing the location of all army, navy and marine corps contingents, camps and stations in the territory traversed by that line. A large map of the Southern States shows where these points are located and their proximity to railroad lines. Each point is numbered and at the bottom of the map is a key indicating the name of the camp and the nature of service. In addition, there are individual maps of the more important camps, in which such local features as rivers, highways and all transportation lines are shown. Of the 31 sites selected for the occupancy by Uncle Sam's fighting forces in the territory between the Ohio River and the Gulf of Mexico, between the Atlantic Ocean and the Mississippi River, a large majority are reached directly by the Southern Railway System. Those desiring a copy of the booklet are invited to apply to E. N. Aiken, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.
